John Coles

OPEN

support, the Medical Day

needs of the individuals we

To keep up with the changing

Timonium location.

Through the power of human relationship & pursuit of excellence, we open doors to a fuller life for people with intellectual disabilities.

Sherman Washington

Sean Ball

Rosewood closed in June 2009. Twenty-one individuals came in us expanding into Harford County, opening several homes in the community.

Thomas Billings

In 1991, the Anne Lindsey program opened in Baltimore City. Gallagher Services purchased two other homes in Anne Arundel County, serving 54 individuals.

David Dixon

Bryant Olivis

Dawnette Howard

Arthur Rutledge

The nine original individuals at Francis X. Gallagher Services (above) sang at the Meyerhoff Gallagher Fest.

On February 3, individuals from Gallagher participated in Catholic Charities Day in Annapolis, where Gallagher Services was re-established on the Senate floor for 40 years on the Senate floor for 40 years.

Gallagher Fest.

In 2010, Goucher College and Gallagher partnered to exhibit individuals’ art. Individuals also had a joint semester-long class with students.

1977-2017

Our mission – then and now – is to open doors to a fuller life for people with intellectual disabilities. Our doors opened at The Pot Spring Road location in 1977 when Gallagher Services is celebrating 40 years of support and service to individuals with intellectual disabilities from 1888 – 2009, moved into that location. Nine of those 13 children are now adults and are aging out of the school system.

In 1989, the Francis X. Gallagher Center opened in Baltimore City.

In 2002, and it was up and running in the spring of 2003.

Greenhouse in the fall of 2004.

Broke ground on the Chestnut Hill Day Program.

In 2004, Gallagher Services opened two day programs. Assumed the Chestnut Hill Day Program to support individuals in the community.

In 2005, Donald Dawson sang at the Meyerhoff Gallagher Fest.

Gallagher Services is a leading provider of intellectual disabilities from 1888 – 2009, moved into that location. Nine of those 13 children are now adults and are aging out of the school system.

The Francis X. Gallagher Center

Sang at the Meyerhoff Gallagher Fest.

Gallagher Services purchased two other homes in Anne Arundel County, serving 54 individuals.

In 2010, Goucher College and Gallagher partnered to exhibit individuals’ art. Individuals also had a joint semester-long class with students.

1977-2017

Our mission – then and now – is to open doors to a fuller life for people with intellectual disabilities. Our doors opened at The Pot Spring Road location in 1977 when Gallagher Services is celebrating 40 years of support and service to individuals with intellectual disabilities from 1888 – 2009, moved into that location. Nine of those 13 children are now adults and are aging out of the school system.

In 1989, the Francis X. Gallagher Center opened in Baltimore City.

In 2002, and it was up and running in the spring of 2003.

Greenhouse in the fall of 2004.

Broke ground on the Chestnut Hill Day Program.

In 2004, Gallagher Services opened two day programs. Assumed the Chestnut Hill Day Program to support individuals in the community.

In 2005, Donald Dawson sang at the Meyerhoff Gallagher Fest.

Gallagher Services is a leading provider of intellectual disabilities from 1888 – 2009, moved into that location. Nine of those 13 children are now adults and are aging out of the school system.

The Francis X. Gallagher Center

Sang at the Meyerhoff Gallagher Fest.

Gallagher Services purchased two other homes in Anne Arundel County, serving 54 individuals.

In 2010, Goucher College and Gallagher partnered to exhibit individuals’ art. Individuals also had a joint semester-long class with students.

1977-2017

Our mission – then and now – is to open doors to a fuller life for people with intellectual disabilities. Our doors opened at The Pot Spring Road location in 1977 when Gallagher Services is celebrating 40 years of support and service to individuals with intellectual disabilities from 1888 – 2009, moved into that location. Nine of those 13 children are now adults and are aging out of the school system.

In 1989, the Francis X. Gallagher Center opened in Baltimore City.

In 2002, and it was up and running in the spring of 2003.

Greenhouse in the fall of 2004.

Broke ground on the Chestnut Hill Day Program.

In 2004, Gallagher Services opened two day programs. Assumed the Chestnut Hill Day Program to support individuals in the community.

In 2005, Donald Dawson sang at the Meyerhoff Gallagher Fest.

Gallagher Services is a leading provider of intellectual disabilities from 1888 – 2009, moved into that location. Nine of those 13 children are now adults and are aging out of the school system.

The Francis X. Gallagher Center

Sang at the Meyerhoff Gallagher Fest.

Gallagher Services purchased two other homes in Anne Arundel County, serving 54 individuals.

In 2010, Goucher College and Gallagher partnered to exhibit individuals’ art. Individuals also had a joint semester-long class with students.

1977-2017

Our mission – then and now – is to open doors to a fuller life for people with intellectual disabilities. Our doors opened at The Pot Spring Road location in 1977 when Gallagher Services is celebrating 40 years of support and service to individuals with intellectual disabilities from 1888 – 2009, moved into that location. Nine of those 13 children are now adults and are aging out of the school system.

In 1989, the Francis X. Gallagher Center opened in Baltimore City.

In 2002, and it was up and running in the spring of 2003.

Greenhouse in the fall of 2004.

Broke ground on the Chestnut Hill Day Program.

In 2004, Gallagher Services opened two day programs. Assumed the Chestnut Hill Day Program to support individuals in the community.

In 2005, Donald Dawson sang at the Meyerhoff Gallagher Fest.

Gallagher Services is a leading provider of intellectual disabilities from 1888 – 2009, moved into that location. Nine of those 13 children are now adults and are aging out of the school system.

The Francis X. Gallagher Center

Sang at the Meyerhoff Gallagher Fest.

Gallagher Services purchased two other homes in Anne Arundel County, serving 54 individuals.

In 2010, Goucher College and Gallagher partnered to exhibit individuals’ art. Individuals also had a joint semester-long class with students.

1977-2017

Our mission – then and now – is to open doors to a fuller life for people with intellectual disabilities. Our doors opened at The Pot Spring Road location in 1977 when Gallagher Services is celebrating 40 years of support and service to individuals with intellectual disabilities from 1888 – 2009, moved into that location. Nine of those 13 children are now adults and are aging out of the school system.

In 1989, the Francis X. Gallagher Center opened in Baltimore City.

In 2002, and it was up and running in the spring of 2003.

Greenhouse in the fall of 2004.

Broke ground on the Chestnut Hill Day Program.

In 2004, Gallagher Services opened two day programs. Assumed the Chestnut Hill Day Program to support individuals in the community.

In 2005, Donald Dawson sang at the Meyerhoff Gallagher Fest.

Gallagher Services is a leading provider of intellectual disabilities from 1888 – 2009, moved into that location. Nine of those 13 children are now adults and are aging out of the school system.

The Francis X. Gallagher Center

Sang at the Meyerhoff Gallagher Fest.

Gallagher Services purchased two other homes in Anne Arundel County, serving 54 individuals.

In 2010, Goucher College and Gallagher partnered to exhibit individuals’ art. Individuals also had a joint semester-long class with students.